"Faith Community – Come Catch the Spirit!"

- † Worship-Centered: with a blend of old and new, we offer a unique worship style.
- † Bible-Centered: When it comes to our scripture readings and our sermons, worshipers are encouraged to follow along with their pew bibles as we "dig together" into the Word of God.
- † Prayer-Centered: worshipers are encouraged to openly share their own prayer petitions. It is so inspiring to hear faithful prayers being lifted from worshipers of all ages, 3 to 93.
- † Visitor-Friendly: We encourage our worshipers to get involved! We welcome new faces and new ideas in all of the many ministries here at Faith!

17th Sunday after Pentecost September 19, 2010

Sometimes the texts for a given Sunday are all more or less "about" one subject. Sometimes that doesn't seem to be the case. Then we have to look more deeply to see what they might have in common. That's the case today. Amos tells us of God's anger that we ignore the needs of the poor. Psalm 113 tells us how God will give triumph to the powerless and to childless women. Luke 16 is that very troubling passage in which it appears that a good master commends his servant for what could easily be seen as bribery. And Timothy urges us to prayer. What do these have in common? What is God saying to us?

Luke 16:13 might be a good summary. No servant can serve two masters. These passages do have something in common. They all deal with the nitty-gritty of life—with money, with needy neighbors, with women who long for babies, with management and employer-employee relations. Wait a minute! Does Timothy have anything to do with the other three? He's speaking of prayer—more or less constant all-encompassing prayer.

the Week: What present desires or increase your devotion to the Lord?

n in honor of her loving parent, Christine & Frederick.

Timothy has EVERYTHING to do with it. If there is a strong unifying message in these four texts, it is this: nothing escapes God's notice; there is nothing and nobody He doesn't care about; His power extends into every corner of every life; and we are commanded by that same loving, powerful God to be involved with Him and His world moment by moment as his faithful servants. There is One God, and and one mediator between God and men. And St. Paul tells Timothy in verse 8 I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands in prayer, without anger or disputing. The word of the Lord, for sure.

Oh Lord, impel our prayers, remind us to pray, send your Spirit to us at inconvenient times. And teach us to listen and to act in response to your Holy Spirit speaking as we pray. May that be our daily life. Amen
Chris Goble

Welcome, Guests!

Second Lesson: 1 Tim 6:6-19

Psalm 146

Holy Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

Upcoming Activities

Adults! Three options of Adult Bible Studies beginning TODAY...9:30-10:30 am.

Option #1: The Book of Acts

This course explores the exciting work of the Holy Spirit through the earliest Church, and its meaning for us today, covering a chapter a week with in-depth Bible Study. Led by Pastor Bruce in Sunrise Room 226. Today

Option #2: The Book of Genesis

The Book of Genesis is not only a record of "firsts" in Scripture, but it is the foundation upon which the rest of the Bible is based. The emphasis in Genesis on complete and total faith is the key to our perspective as Christians. Utilizing specific passages each week with related questions, discussion, and applications in an informal manner. Drop in anytime in this small group setting.

Led by John Benson in Room 232. Today

Option #3: The Christian Response to the Paranormal

There are things that happen around us every day, unexplainable and mysterious. Are they? Scripture has much to say about those things that fascinate, confuse and terrify. Come and learn what the Bible has to say about the paranormal.

Led by Mark Alexander in Sunset Room, 230. Today
